Beginning Ballet Summer 2026 Workshop June 22nd - July 31st

At this level, dancers begin to form the foundation of proper technique and core strength that are essential to ballet. Character class is also introduced at this level, which prepares students for the different styles of dance and drama needed in many performances. During the summer course, dancers will have a full ballet barre, learn ballet terminology, work on stretching as well as center work. Additionally, students will learn the etiquette and traditions that are such an important part of the art form.
